Certificate from Dr. John Addison, physician to the Baltimore Southern Dispensary.

Having been made acquainted with the ingredients which enter into the composition of your "ANODYNE CHERRY EXPECTORANT," and having also made trials of its virtues, I have no hestitation in recommending it to the confidence and patronage of the public, as a most valuable medicine in the treatment of the various diseases for which it is intended.

A number of the most respectable physicians, to whom we have communicated a knowledge of the constituents of these medicines, have been pleased to favor us with their opinions [some of them in writing] that they are the best remedies they have ever been acquainted with for the cure of the diseases for which they

A MONG the many articles recom-mended for promoting a luxuriant and beautiful growth of the human hair, cleansing the head from Dandruff and its natural impurities, nothing has ever been discovered to compete with the virtues of the incontested -- the incontestible KATH AIRON, either as a TOILET PREPA-RATION in its softening and fragrant character, or to preserve and resuscitate fallen hair upon GREY and BALD HEADS. The Kathairon neutralizes the effect of disease, climate and old age, which so often cause the hair to fall off and turn grey.

Ladies and gentlemen wishing an article to cleanse, soften, curl and beautify their hair, should be particular and enquire for LYON'S KATHAIRON. It is sold by all Dealers throughout North and South America, Europe and the Islands of the Ocean, in large bottles

CLINTON FEMALE INSTITUTE. THIS INSTITUTION will commence its first session on Monday, the 24th of January next, under the patronage of the Trustees, and Luke C. Graves, A. M., of Warrenton, N. C., as Principal of the Institute.

The Trustees flatter themselves that, in the selection of Dr. A. G. Brade—Sir: My little child, when one month old, was attacked with Scald Head, and for two years I have employed the best medical aid in the city without any benefit. One month since its head was a solid cake or sore. I purchased one 25 cent bottle of your Mustang Liniment to cure a sore I had on my nose and upper lip. which had been so for six months—it cured it immediately. I used the remainder of the bottle on the child's head, and it is nearly cured—one bottle more will, without doubt, perfectly cure it.

The town of Clinton, situated as it is only 14 miles from Warsaw, and 35 miles from Fayetteville, with a daily line of four horse stages running through the town from Fayetteville to Warsaw, render it very accessible.

The situation is equally remote from the very flat lands of the Atlantic coast and the mountainous regions of upper North Carolina, with a fine surrounding country, and a most salubrious climate, which together render it one of the most healthy, villages in the State.

The building itself has been most highly complimented by all who have visited our village and one very learned gentleman, (Rev. Thos. Owen.) said, "It is not only a credit to your county, but a credit to the State." It unites beauty with usefulness being large and commodies—and at the same time so constructed as to furnish one of the finest school rooms in the land; which is well warmed by four fire places, with every other convenience, both for teacher and pupil.

The Wilmington Herald of Saturday m copies from the Asheville Spectator, a paper with which we do not exchange, what that paper calls a programme, agreed upon by certain leading Democrats of this section, whom it denominates, in their collective capacity, the "Cape Fear Clique." The programme is as follows:

Mr. Dobbin to be U. S. Senator: Judge Strange to be U. S. Attorney General; D. K. McRae to be Minister to Chili; S. J. Person to be Charge to some place not yet decided upon. The Raleigh Standard to be the organ or mouth-piece of said clique.

After stating the programme as above, the Herald propounds the following questions:

1st. Is there. Mr. Wilmington Journal, such an association as the "Cape Fear Clique ?" 2d. Is the Raleigh Standard the mouth piece said Democratic Association or Clique?

3d. Is the above programme true or not? "1st. Is there a Cape Fear Clique?"

The leading article in Blackwood's Edinburg question, and is entitled "Slavery and the Slave Power in the United States of America." For impudence and false statements, this article goes as far beyond the Sutherland address, as it exceeds that sition in ability and power to deceive. The falsity of its leading statement, and that upon which its main argument depends, is so glaring as to be contradicted by even the New York Tribune itself. In attempting to show the evil effects of slavery upon even the white race themselves, it gives the following statement from the two censuses of 1840 and 1850. It says, "In the two censuses of 1840 and 1850, the total free population in the free and slave States, was as follows:

Free States...... 9.654.865 13.533.328 Slave States. .... 7,290.719 6,393,758

It is worthy of remark, that in this, as, indeed, in allusion is made to such personage as Wm. H. The foot-prints of Sewardism are apparent in Blackwood, and although probably not the composition of that arch demagogue, it is certainly redolent of his spirit and influence. The Charlotte and South Carolina Railroad, o which, it is true, but a small portion is within the State, has also been completed, with the most beneficial results to several of our Southwestern counties, which find through it an outlet to market; and plank roads are either projected or in course of construction, for the purpose of bringing more distant points in advantageous connection with it. On our Northeastern border, the Seaboard and Roanoke Road has been revived, and the Petersburg Road and its vari ous connections much improved.

It will thus be seen, that of the works either pro jected or in operation prior to 1848, all have receiv ed new life, vigor and value, and all the important ones are either now completed, or else their speedy completion rendered absolutely certain. But this is not all, nor even half. An immense family of new works have sprung into existence since the Legislature of 1847-'8, among which the greatest, if not the most promising, is the North Carolina Railroad. lief that this work will prove anything like a profitable investment, we have no doubt that it will very largely enhance the value of property, and add to the prosperity of the people of the counties along its line, and thus, indirectly, the State Treasury be reimbursed for the outlay on the Road by the increased revenue which will flow into it.

The whole system of Plank Roads, so well suited to the interior of a sparcely settled agricultural State, has been put in operation since 1848; and it is due to our sister town of Fayetteville to add, that to her successful experiments and well-directed energy in that line, we owe much, if not all, that has been done throughout the State. At any rate, Fay- king for war. Twenty line-of-battle-ships, eighteen etteville has been the starting point and the exampler for these useful works, and her influence has been productive of the most useful results. Since 1848, practical attention has been turned t and the reports of experienced and scientific Geolo gists have pronounced favorably upon both the quan ity and quality of the mines of coal and iron there sources of this mineral section, by affording its products an outlet to market. One-the Cape Fear & been, but for misconceptions and mismanagements. some of which are fairly attributable to the unavoi dable difficulties of a new work-to others it would be difficult to give so charitable a construction. Bu the stockholders may soon expect to reap some benefit from it. The other work -- a Railroad from Fay etteville to the mines-was chartered at the last ses sion of the General Assembly. Books of subscrip and we learn from the Observer of the 8th, that the supscriptions in that town now amount to nearly $100,000, the amount necessary to secure the charter and authorize the organization of the Company subscribe another hundred thousand. Books are also to be opened here and at other points, as will be other column. In this connection we would adver to the recommendation embodied in the report of I J. Fleming. Esq , Resident Engineer of the W. & M R Road, in favor of a branch of that Road to form a connection at Fayetteville, with the Road from that place to the mines. This, we are confident, will eventually be built. From the mines to Salisbury. s comparatively a small distance, and a Railroad to the latter place would there connect with the proected extension to the Tennessee line. We would thus have a line of Railroads traversing the State from East to West, in as nearly a direct line as could well be, making an available main stem, with be rendered valuable, and certainly, in view of what has been done within the last five years, it is by no means chimerical to look forward to this as well as to the Eastern and Western extension of the Central Road to Beaufort and the Tennessee line.

When we reflect that every mile of Railroad in the State has been laid or re-laid since 1848, that every foot of plank road in the State has been built since that time, that every thing tending to develope works or otherwise, has also been done-that the number of miles of new road commenced and nearcompleted since then exceeds the whole amoun in existence before, we find cause rather for amazement at the rapidity, than for chagrin at the slowness of our progress, rather to guard against undue

When we add to all this that one step, at least has been taken towards the revision and improve ment of our system of common schools, by the ap pointment of a Superintendent, and of our agriculture, by having an examination and analysis of our soils and capabilities, by a competent State geologist, olina has made rapid strides towards the attainment of that position which is due to her resources and extent. The resolution was agreed to, and Mr. Hunter was ap-pointed teller on the part of the Senate.

On to-morrow, therefore, the votes will be count ed out, and the result, which every one knows, will be authoritatively proclaimed, and Franklin Pierce and Wm. R. I do not know whether these lines will reach your office, for we have now here in our black empire the same police system as in Austrian or Russian States, and in a couple of months, perhaps, if your government does not open their eyes, Port au Price will be the politica St. Petersburg of island America. A Russian ambassador-the young Count of Stackelberghas arrived here incognito; and, at the same time, the Spanish man-of-war Isabella II, with Commodore Salcedo, and the English war steamer Alban, with Lieutenant Meynell, and important things are going on concerning St. Domingo, Cuba, &c. The Americans are treated on the whole island like

In my opinion the United States and France should look out for the intrigues of the other powers, who have the intention to give St. Domingo, Cuba, Guadaloupe, La Martinique, etc., to Faustin I, autocrat of America. The emperor himself is smarter and more intriguant than Americans suppose.

The yellow fever is always here, in the most terrible manner; captain, mates, and sailors, die every day. You are doubtless aware, although you have not told your readers so, that at the last session of our Legislature an act was passed, (drawn up by my. self and presented by Mr. Hill, one of our representatives.) authorizing the Richmond and Danville Railroad Company to build a branch of their Road to the town of Milton, and erect therein the necessary Depot, Ware Houses, &c. PROFITS OF THE AUSTRALIA GOLD MINES .- We see it stated that the Adelaide (Australia) Mining Company has declared a dividend of £100 per cent .-The latest advices from Lond n state that specula tion continues active in the shares of all the Austra lian Land and Mining Companies. A Lendon letter in the New York Commercial, says: "The price of the Australian Agricultural, on which £35 are paid, is maintained at about £300. The number of these shares is 10,000, and therefore the recent rise in rice has been equal to a nominal addition of about wo millions and a half sterling to the property of the public. The fact of the company being poss ed of 1,000,000 acres of land, of which at least onethird has been ascertained to be more or less audi ferous, causes the recent advance to assume a le speculative aspect than would otherwise be the case Another concern, called the Great Nugget Ve Company, recently started at Sydney, and of which one-third of the shares have been distributed in the London market, has experienced a remarkable r ception. The shares are for £2 each, and the portion sent to London were issued at £1 5s. prem that being the sole condition on which they were be offered They were all eagerly applied for, t firm by whom they were introduced being a very spectable one, and they are now quoted at £5 pre of the company is to work a vein, of which they have procured a lease, from which, at the time of its covery. a solid lump of upwards of a hundred weigh of gold was obtained.

REVIEW OF THE WILMINGTON MARKET, FOR THE WEEK ENDING PERRUARY 10TH, 1853.

Charleston ..... i " have been better than for some time past, and there is now a fair stock on market, with a good demand. Sales have been made from carts and wagons at $11 80, $12 and $12 50 per 100 lbs for hog round, and $13 for hams, in lots to suit. The stock of Western is good, and we have no change to note n prices. See table for store rates.

BEEF CATFLE —Only one small drove received to order since last review, and the stock in butcher's hands has been uostly worked up, and the market is now bare with the exception of above drove, (about 21 head.) The demand is good, and the article would read by bring quotations. Corron. - Sales during the week of some 160 bales Cotton at 9 a 94 cents per lb.

Corn.—The stock on market is heavy and the demand

CORN.—The stock on market is heavy and the demand moderate. A cargo of 1,900 bushels, just received from Hyde county, remains 0.2 market unsold.

The Scamen's Friends' Society.

We regret that unavoidable and pressing business has rendered it impossible for us to attend the interesting meetings held for the furtherance of the objects of this really philanthropic society. We learn that the addresses have been of a character well calculated to awaken interest and to excite feeling upon the subject, as well as to reflect credit upon the gentlemen by whom they were delivered.

The end in view, if we understand it aright, is the establishment and maintenance of a "Sailors' Home" and "Bethel," for the double purpose of providing for this meritorious but neglected portion of our fellow-citizens, a home under proper regulations, and of affording them opportunities of religious and moral instruction.

No class of men exceed the sailors in presence of mind and fertility of resources, when upon that element which custom has brought them to regard as "naturel"; while, on the other hand, hardly any beings can be more helpless, or more liable to fall been done to cheer the judicious philanthropist and the man that butted the bull off the bridge. reward him for his exertions, while still more important results are foreshadowed in the future.

subject, and if our people generally take hold of it, we feel not the slightest doubt but that it will be e rried through to a successful consummation, and that the results will be such as to give an abundant harvest of good fruit, greatly to the honor of those who have initiated it, and still more to the satisfaction of their own hearts in the enjoyment derived from the contemplation of a useful and benevolent work successfully accomplished.

" The Last Days of the Session."

In an article headed as above, the Raleigh Standard of the 19th ult., triumphantly vindicates Messrs. Hill, of Duplin, and Strange, of New Hanover. against the charge of "Revolution," preferred against them by the Raleigh Register. We publish that portion of the Standard's article having refer- year, won the four mile race on Wednesday last with not discontented. Italy is but one mass of conspi-ence to these gentlemen, as follows: The Register says that on Thursday, the 23dafter the Senatorial bill had passed its second reading, and when an effort was made by the revolutionary leaders to suspend the rules and force it through od for adjournment-the Democrats opposed the suspension of the rules, and that "Messrs. Hill, against time, so as to consume all the moments left before twelve o'clock." The impression is here sought to be created that these gentlemen were parties to the revolutionary movement. Nothing could be more unfounded or unjust as the facts will show. On Wednesday, the 22d, after the Scnatorial bill apparent that Mr. Reid's bill would pass if a vote could be had upon it, on motion of Mr. Puryear, the whole matter was referred to a select committee of two, with directions to report that afternoon. This committee, as we have stated, was appointed by the Speaker, and was composed of Messrs. Avery and Phillips, a Democrat and a Whig. The Committee reported in the afternoon, and their report was made the special order for seven o'clock. The night session came, and it was announced by Messrs. Cherry, Caldwell, Miller, and others, at the outset, that the report of this committee should not be adopted, and that unless the Democrats would give them a bill, and give it to them then, which would suit them as party men, they would consume the time of the twelve o'clock, when, by force of the joint Resolution, the two Houses would stand adjourned. And this course was pursued by these members-Mr. Whig party on the floor-until half past ten o'clock, when Mr. Dobbin appealed to Mr. Cherry and those acting with him, to consent to rescind the joint resolution to adjourn, and then he had no doubt some plan could be proposed which both parties could agree upon; and he entreated these gentlemen not to endanger the very existence of the government for the sake of carrying out a party scheme, assuring them at the same time that there was every disposition in his party friends to meet them in a spirit of compromise. The appeal of Mr. Dobbin produced no effect upon these reckless disorganizers. At an early period of the night session a message was received from the Senate proposing to rescind the joint Resolution to adjourn at twelve o'clock; but the Speaker did not see fit to submit this message to the House, though by doing so he could at once consumed. have put an end to the disgraceful scene which was being enacted by some of his party friends. When half past eleven arrived, nothing having been effected, Col. Puryear-as had been arranged, no doubt, from the beginning by the Speaker and himself--introduced a Resolution to send a message to the Senate to rescind the Resolution to adjourn at twelve o'clock that night, provided the Senate would agree to adjourn at twelve o'clock next day. When the vote had been taken upon Mr. Puryear's Resolution, and a message had been received from the Senate concurring in it, Mr. Strange, of New Hanover. moved to send a message to the Senate to rescind the Resolution to adjourn the next day at twelve o'clock; and be made this motion for the obvious purpose of preventing the re-enactment on Thursay of the scenes of Wednesday night: but before the vote was taken on his motion, the House adjourn ed. On Thursday morning Mr. Strange's motion came up first in order, as the unfinished business but at the request of Mr. Martin, of Franklin, he withdrew it to make way for a Resolution introduced by him, to the effect that the Senatorial bill should be taken up and considered until half past eleven o'clock; and that, when this time had clapsed, Mr. Strange's motion should be taken up and acted up-Before half past eleven arrived amendments had been made to the bill of a character which satisfied the Whig leaders, and the bill, as amended, passed its second reading; and the Speaker then deided that, by force of Mr. Martin's Resolution, the rules were suspended and the bill could be put upon its third reading. From this decision Mr. Reid, of Duplin, appealed; and Mr. Hill. of Caswell, and Mr. Strange, of New Hanover, addressed the House against the decision. The Register says they spoke to consume time, so that twelve o'clock might arrive and the Legislature be adjourned; but the facts are gainst the Register, for by Mr. Martin's resolution was provided that, as soon as half past cleve: arrived. Mr. Strange's motion to send a message to the senate to rescind the joint resolution to adjourn at 2 o'clock would come up, and therefore Mr. Hill,

Mr. Strange, and others, could not have consumed the ne up to twelve o'clock. These gentlemen were eaking in good faith against the decision of the caker-a decision that would not have been sus-ined by the House, had a vote been taken upon it.

he Register knows very well that during this en-

Fight with a Jaguar. A correspondent of the Galveston News gives the following account of a desperate fight between Mr. Absolem Williams, who is about seventy years of age, his wife, and an enormous tiger, which occurred there about the 1st of December, at Mr. W's res-

The tiger was first discovered on the premises Mr. James Drake, who lives in the north portion of Jefferson county, where it entered his enclosure. attacked his horses, and killed one, besides wounding two others. While the tiger was committing its depredations it was discovered by Francis Drake, son of the proprietor of the premises, who fired a shot gan at it, wounding it in the side, but not dangerously, when it made its escape. The next day, while Mr. and Mrs. Williams were sitting in their house, (the rest of the family being absent,) they were startled by a strange noise in the yard. in front of their house. Mr. W., on going out, discovered his dog engaged with a tiger, when he seized an oxyoke and aimed a blow at the "varmint," but missng it, struck his dog. The dog then got away from the tiger and retreated. In an instant the tiger sprung on Mr. Williams, and, seizing him by the hand, jerked him about twenty feet.

The old gentleman, finding himself in the too powerful grasp of the wild animal, courageously determined to give it the best "rough and tumble fight" in his power, and having no weapons within reach he seized the tiger by the throat with his other hand, and throwing his whole strength forward, crushed the tiger to the ground, both falling side by side .-At this time Mrs. Williams came to the rescue, with gun, which she snapped at the tiger, but there beng no priming in the pan, it did not go off. Mr V. then, with one arm around the tiger's body, and grasping its throat with his other hand, by an effort disengaged himself. The tiger, discovering a new adversary in the person of Mrs. W., jumped at her, and attempted to grasp her head within its jaws, while it struck and lacerated her breast with its fore paws. She tried to avoid the monster, but was felled to the ground. The tiger made another grasp at her head, his upper teeth penetrated at the top of the skull and sliding along the bone, peeled off the skin till they met the lower teeth, which penetrated to the right side of her face.

In the mean time, Mr. W. had seized the ox-voke again, and, giving the tiger a tremendous blow, caused it to leave Mrs. W., when it leaped into the house and got under the bed. The door was imme diately closed and the monster secured. Mr. W. was exhausted from the effects of his wounds, from which the blood flowed in streams; but not so his better half. When she saw their mutual foe thus attempt to take possession of their house, she determined to finish the battle, and notwithstanding the but calls into existence ten times that number. - | severity of her wounds, her dress almost entirely Hungary is quiet, but it is only the quiet of a tem- torn from her person, and covered with blood, she hordes of the Czar still hovering on her borders, der from the barrel into the pan, placed the muzzle ch the logs of the no error in the Court below. Also in Bordeaux vs. people, whose patriotism and whose courage have measured, it was found to be twelve feet f om the tip of its tail to its nose.

During all the time the fight was going on, no one but those engaged in it were within hearing. Mr. W.'s nearest neighbor lives three miles off. However, as Mrs. W. was washing the blood from her person, a neighbor came riding by, and alarmed at her appearance, inquired the cause. The old lady, unable from the loss of blood to speak, pointed to the dead body of the tiger. The escape of Mr. and Mrs. Williams is indeed wonderful, and they are now recovering gradually from their wounds. Mr. W. jokes about the tiger fight; and intimates that the old lady was most enraged when the "varmint" took possession of his bed and house. It need hardly be added that Mr. Williams is a brave man. He fought the British at New Orleans, and subsequently the Mexicans, in the cause of Texas: but this last fight is, perhaps, the most singular of all. His wife, in intrepidity and daring, is worthy of him, and the two, together, are of that courageous class that have encountered forest wilds and frontier dangers-the pioneer of Christian civilization and American institutions.

The money was counted, placedin a shot-bag, enveloped in brown paper, and again wrapped in cotton cloth, and was placed in a trunk, which was locked, and the key taken by Perry. It was there to remain for some days. In three days the gipsey returned, and she and Perry had an interview alone The trunk was opened, and the bundle was found exactly as it had been placed. He was required then to go upon his knees, in order that her incantations performed over the trunk and money might have their full effect. While so engaged, her cloak fell upon the trunk, but she quickly replaced it on her shoulders. The mysterious proceeding being over. Perry was called to examine the trunk, and found it all right; be relocked it and pocketed the key. He was now told that the work was done, and that on the ninth day she would return, and if the money. &c., in the trunk were all right, she would be at liberty to point out to him the exact location of the treasure on his farm. She further told him that if she were detained by sickness or other cause, he was to open the trunk himself, and would find the necessary instructions. It can searcely be credited than a man possessing is ordinary senses could have been so led away by the hopes of gain, yet it is true that the trunk was secretly kept closed for the ninth day, (a Saturday.) and the gipsy did not return. Without informing his family or friends of his mishap, he obtained the services of two or three persons, and, mounted, they hastened to this city in pursuit of the gipsies, it being stated they had come this way. Ascertaining that some of them were residing in the First Ward, he stated the above facts to Justice Drury, who issued a warrant to search the premises of the gipsies.

The officers visited the place, and the appearance of the parties presented the most squalid and wretched poverty; no furniture, save some beds ville, by E. J. Lutterloh thrown on the floor, was found in the house. Two of the beds were occupied by women in confinement. No obstacle was presented to the search; and, tied up in handkerchiefs, rags, in tin kettles, boxes &c., the officers found large quantities of gold and silver coin, amounting, it is said, to at least $20,000. Captain Perry could identify none of his noney-the greater portion of it having been in bills of Baltimore banks-nor could he identify either of the women here as the women who had promised him the treasure. Since then, with the aid of several officers, he has been scouring the neighboring counties of Virginia and Maryland, but, up to Sunday night, had obtained no knowledge of his fortune-teller.

A Strong Temperance Speech.

We find in an Eastern paper the following arguments in favor of Temperance by Mr. Edward Bains, of England, who is the member of Parliament, we believe, for Leed. The following is an extract from his speech:

"The peculiar danger of intoxicating drinks is in their extreme seductiveness, and in the all but unconquerable strength of the drinking habit when once formed; and their peculiar malignity is in their being the parent or nurse of every kind of crime. wickedness, and suffering.

"I say boldly that no man living who uses intoxicating drinks is free from the danger of at least occasional, and if of occasional, ultimately of habitual excess. I have myself known such frightful instances of persons brought into captivity to the habit, that ers, he will be enabled to sell at very reasonable pricestive seems to be no character. position, or circumthere seems to be no character, position, or circumstances that free men from the danger.
